Call to Order

Meeting opened at 6:30pm

Adoption of Agenda

Motion to adopt- April, Rebecca second, agenda adopted.

Old Business:

- PAC Fridge delivered by Lauren – thank you
- Safe arrival recap – good things to come of this

Principal's Report:

- Shed will be moved in the spring as it currently sits on the sprinklers
- Gaga ball is sitting in MP room. Needs wood Donated (24 2x10x8 pressure treated sheets of treated lumber) Need people to put this together.
- Many CV kids have jobs at school and they love it. 2 boys take the sand toys out, and kids take board games out and back, one kid has the key to the shed and locks it up. Kids love these jobs and clean up art room and gym.
- Grade 5's will be helping with hot lunch
- Chrome books on the way, laptops for teacher (3) coming.
- Reporting - pilot year, 9 districts have to give feedback to gov't on what kind of reporting we want. There is a new proficiency scale , emerging, developing, proficient, and extending. This is more of a continuum of learning. Some teachers doing multiple reports, some on fresh grade. This is moving towards a system where it is not static. They are still growing and developing. Reflective of the new curriculum redesign.
- Library is now divided between 4 people. Ms. Hogewide, Fjorn, Laughton and one other
- Feedback from the Reunification drill – parents expressed positive and negative feedback, and the CV sea can of emergency supplies is the best in the district

Fundraising:

- Movie Night Nov 21 Doors open 5:30pm movie starts at 6pm
- Save Around Books –confusing and not planning to do this fundraiser next year
- Spirit Wear – lots of interest, Collette to do another order
- Christmas Store: more info to come
- Bottle drive – Jan 12 – Tanya to put in a request for Belmont Park

CHOMP:

- Considering changing vendors and hot dog days to align with the healthy food guidelines

SPEAC:

- Erika put forward a question about the freshgrade pilot and what the district is doing regarding data/wifi capabilities.
- Announcing March 2, 2019 for the Van.Is Parent Conference
- PAC 101 was on Nov 5th
